

Announcement: Rudy Exelrod Zieff & Lowe LLP is delighted to announce that Erin M. Pulaski and Michelle G. Lee have been promoted to partnership

Erin M. Pulaski has been consistently recognized for her advocacy on behalf of employees and executives. From 2015 to 2017, she was named one of the Top Women Attorneys in Northern California by San Francisco Magazine. Erin represents employees in all aspects of employment litigation, including wrongful termination, discrimination, retaliation, harassment, wage and hour, and unpaid commission claims. Erin has been an active member of numerous successful trial and arbitration teams in recent years, including several individual employment cases that resulted in seven-figure judgments for the firm's clients. She serves as a Contributing Editor for The Rutter Group's California Practice Guide: Employment Litigation. Prior to joining Rudy, Exelrod, Zieff & Lowe, Erin worked as an attorney at a Los Angeles employment and civil rights firm. She also served as a law clerk to Chief Judge Sidney R. Thomas of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Erin is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, School of Law (Berkeley Law), where she graduated in the top 10% of her class.

Michelle G. Lee represents employees in individual and class action litigation in a range of employment matters. She has tried complex cases in court and arbitration, including serving as second chair on the trial team in the landmark sex discrimination case Ellen Pao v. Kleiner Perkins. She has also tried cases involving breach of contract and unpaid equity claims. She is a frequent speaker at conferences and panels on employment law issues as well as on topics related to bias and diversity. Michelle is experienced in wage and hour class actions, wrongful termination, discrimination, retaliation, harassment, breach of contract, and trade secrets matters. Before joining Rudy, Exelrod, Zieff & Lowe, Michelle was an associate at a prominent national litigation firm, where she handled a wide variety of complex cases ranging from intellectual property disputes to securities lawsuits. She also served as a law clerk for the Honorable William Alsup of the Northern District of California. Michelle is a graduate, cum laude, of the University of Michigan Law School where she was an editor for the Michigan Journal of Law Reform.
